PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

May 5, 2009

INTRODUCTION; PROXY VOTING INFORMATION

Unless we have indicated otherwise, or the context otherwise requires, references in this report to “GAMCO Investors, Inc.,” “GAMCO,” “the Company,” “GBL,” “we,” “us” and “our” or similar terms are to GAMCO Investors, Inc., its predecessors and its subsidiaries.

We are sending you this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of GAMCO Investors, Inc. for use at our 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (“the Annual Meeting”) and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The purpose of the meeting is to elect directors, ratify the appointment of the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm and act upon any other matters properly brought to the meeting. We sent you this proxy statement, the proxy card, and our annual report on Form 10-K (containing our financial statements and other financial information for the year ended December 31, 2008) on or about April 13, 2009. The annual report on Form 10-K, however, is not part of the proxy solicitation materials.

Shareholders of record at the close of business on March 31, 2009, the record date, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. On this record date, we had outstanding 7,379,483 shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $.001 per share (“Class A Stock”), and 20,370,931 shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $.001 per share (“Class B Stock”).

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the aggregate voting power of the shares of Class A Stock and Class B Stock outstanding on March 31, 2009 shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. The Class A Stock and Class B Stock vote together as a single class on all matters. Each share of Class A Stock is entitled to one vote per share and each share of Class B Stock is entitled to ten votes per share. Directors who receive a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting by the holders of Class A Stock and Class B Stock outstanding on March 31, 2009, voting together as a single class, are elected to serve until the 2010 Annual Meeting or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Any other matters will be determined by a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will count for purposes of establishing a quorum, but will not count as votes cast or on any matter. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal to ratify Deloitte & Touche LLP as GAMCO’s independent registered public accounting firm.

We will pay for the costs of soliciting proxies and preparing the meeting materials. We ask securities brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward meeting materials to our beneficial shareholders as of the record date, and will reimburse them for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses they incur. Our directors, officers and staff members may solicit proxies personally or by telephone, facsimile, e-mail or other means, but will not receive additional compensation.

If you are the beneficial owner, but not the record holder, of shares of our Class A Stock, your broker, custodian or other nominee may only deliver one copy of this proxy statement and our 2008 Annual Report to multiple shareholders who share an address unless we have received contrary instructions from one or more of the shareholders. We will deliver promptly, upon written or oral request, a separate copy of this proxy statement and our 2008 Annual Report to a shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of the documents was delivered. A shareholder who wishes to receive a separate copy of the proxy statement and annual report, now or in the future, or who wishes to receive directions to the meeting site, should submit this request by writing to our Secretary at GAMCO Investors, Inc., One Corporate Center, Rye, NY 10580-1422 or by calling him at (914) 921-5000. Beneficial owners sharing an address who are receiving multiple copies of proxy materials and annual reports and who wish to receive a single copy of such materials in the future will need to contact their broker, custodian or other nominee to request that only a single copy of each document be mailed to all shareholders at the shared address in the future.

The Board of Directors has selected each of Mario J. Gabelli, Douglas R. Jamieson and Christopher J. Michailoff to act as proxies. When you sign and return your proxy card, you appoint each of Messrs. Mario Gabelli, Jamieson and Michailoff as your representatives at the meeting. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the meeting by delivering a letter of revocation to our Secretary at GAMCO Investors, Inc., One Corporate Center, Rye, NY 10580-1422, by properly submitting another proxy bearing a later date or by voting in person at the meeting. The last proxy properly submitted by you is the one that will be counted.

Brokerage firms have the authority under New York Stock Exchange rules to vote their clients' unvoted shares on certain routine matters, one of which is the election of directors. If you do not vote your proxy, your brokerage firm may choose to vote for you or leave your shares unvoted. We urge you to respond to your brokerage firm to ensure that your proxy voting instructions are followed.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

GAMCO continually strives to maintain the highest standards of ethical conduct: reporting results with accuracy and transparency and maintaining full compliance with the laws, rules and regulations that govern the Company's businesses. The Company is active in ensuring its governance practices are at the leading edge of best practices.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Eight directors currently serve on our Board of Directors with the addition of Ms. Elisa M. Wilson on February 24, 2009. Our Nominating Committee recommended, and the Board approved, the nomination of each of seven of the eight directors for election to the Board to hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. Mr. John Gabelli, who has been a director since February 2004, has decided not to stand for reelection. Directors who receive a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting shall be elected.

All properly executed proxies received in time to be tabulated for the meeting will be voted FOR the election of the nominees named below, unless otherwise indicated on the proxy. If any nominee becomes unable or unwilling to serve between now and the meeting, your proxies may be voted FOR the election of a replacement designated by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors has established guidelines that it uses in determining director independence that are based on the director independence standards of the New York Stock Exchange. A copy of these guidelines can be found as Exhibit A. These guidelines are also attached to the Board's Corporate Governance Guidelines, which are available on our web site at www.gabelli.com (under Corporate Information, Corporate Governance). A copy of these guidelines may also be obtained upon request from our Secretary. In making its determination with respect to Mr. Prather, the Board considered that the investment advisory subsidiaries of the Company collectively own on behalf of their investment advisory clients as of March 31, 2009 approximately 3.65% of the Class A Common Stock and 7.49% of the Common Stock of Gray Television, Inc. and 10.75% of the Common Stock of Triple Crown Media, Inc. as of February 28, 2009. This ownership represents approximately 5.23% and 10.75% of the total voting power of Gray Television, Inc. and Triple Crown Media, Inc., respectively. Mr. Prather serves as President and Chief Operating Officer and a director of Gray Television,

Inc. and Chairman of the Board of Triple Crown Media, Inc. The Board further considered the difficulty the Company would encounter in attempting to unilaterally affect the management of Gray Television, Inc. or Triple Crown Media, Inc. through the use of its voting power. In making its determination with respect to Mr. Avansino, the Board considered that he has a daughter who works for the Company in a non-executive role, as described under “Certain Relationships and Related Transactions”. With respect to these relationships, the Board considered Messrs. Avansino’s and Prather’s lack of economic dependence on the Company and other personal attributes that need to be possessed by independent-minded directors. Based on these guidelines and considerations, the Board concluded that the following directors were independent and determined that none of them had a material relationship with us which would impair his ability to act as an independent director: Messrs. Avansino, Bready, McGrath and Prather.

The table below sets forth certain information regarding the nominees.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

On March 27, 2009, after a competitive proposal process, the Audit Committee of the Company approved the engagement of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December, 31, 2009 and dismissed Ernst & Young, LLP (“EY”) from that role.

We are asking our shareholders to ratify the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP. In accordance with our governance documents, the Board believes that such submission is consistent with best practices in corporate governance and is an opportunity for shareholders to provide direct feedback to the Board of Directors on an important issue of corporate governance. In the event that the shareholders do not approve the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Audit Committee will reconsider the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP.

The Board recommends that shareholders vote FOR ratification of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company’s independent registered public accountants for the year ended December 31, 2009.

The Board of Directors and Committees

During 2008, there were six meetings of the Board of Directors one of which was a meeting of the independent directors. Our Board of Directors has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, a Governance Committee and a Nominating Committee. We are deemed to be a “controlled company” as defined by the corporate governance standards of the New York Stock Exchange by virtue of the fact that GGCP, Inc. holds more than 50% of the voting power. As a result, we are exempt from the corporate governance standards of the New York Stock Exchange requiring that a majority of the Board of Directors be independent and that all members of the Governance, Nominating and Compensation Committees be independent.

Our non-management directors meet, without any management directors or employees present, immediately after our regular quarterly Board meetings. At least once each year, our independent directors meet in a separate executive session. Mr. Prather serves as lead independent director and chairs the meetings of our non-management and independent directors.

The Audit Committee regularly meets with our independent registered public accounting firm to ensure that satisfactory accounting procedures are being followed and that internal accounting controls are adequate, reviews fees charged by the independent registered public accounting firm and selects our independent registered public accounting firm. Messrs. Avansino, Bready, McGrath and Prather, each of whom is an independent director as defined by the corporate governance standards of the New York Stock Exchange and the Company's guidelines as set forth in Exhibit A, are members of the Audit Committee. Mr. Prather meets the standards of an "audit committee financial expert," as defined by the applicable securities regulations. The Audit Committee met six times during 2008. A copy of the Audit Committee's charter is posted on our web site at www.gabelli.com (under Corporate Information, Corporate Governance). A shareholder may also obtain a copy of the charter upon request from our Secretary.

As is further described in the Report of the Compensation Committee, this committee reviews the amounts paid to the chief executive officer for compliance with the terms of his employment agreement and generally reviews benefits and compensation for the other executive officers. It also administers our Stock Award and Incentive Plan. Messrs. Bready and Prather, each of whom is an independent director, are the members of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee met three times during 2008. A copy of the Compensation Committee's charter is posted on our web site at www.gabelli.com (under Corporate Information, Corporate Governance). A shareholder may also obtain a copy of the charter upon request from our Secretary.

The Governance Committee advises the Board on governance policies and procedures. Messrs. Avansino, Bready and McGrath, each of whom is an independent director, are the members of the Governance Committee. The Governance Committee met once in 2008. A copy of the Governance Committee's charter is posted on our web site at www.gabelli.com (under Corporate Information, Corporate Governance). A shareholder may also obtain a copy of the charter upon request from our Secretary.

The Nominating Committee advises the Board of Directors on the selection and nomination of individuals to serve as directors of GAMCO. Nominations for director, including nominations for director submitted to the committee by shareholders, are evaluated according to our needs and the nominee's knowledge, experience and background. Messrs. Mario Gabelli and John Gabelli are the members of the Nominating Committee. John Gabelli has elected not to stand for reelection. Messrs. Mario Gabelli and John Gabelli are not independent directors as defined by the corporate governance standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Nominating Committee met once in 2008. A copy of the Nominating Committee's charter is posted on our web site at www.gabelli.com (under Corporate Information, Corporate Governance). A shareholder may also obtain a copy of the charter upon request from our Secretary. The Company anticipates that the Board will appoint Ms. Elisa Wilson to the Nominating Committee at the next regular Board meeting.

The Nominating Committee does not have a formal policy by which shareholders may recommend director candidates. The Board of Directors believes it is appropriate not to have such a policy because GGCP, Inc. holds the majority of the voting power. Nevertheless, the Nominating Committee will consider appropriate candidates recommended by shareholders. A shareholder wishing to submit such a recommendation should send a letter to our Secretary at One Corporate Center, Rye, NY 10580 by December 31, 2009. The mailing envelope must contain a clear notation that the enclosed letter is a "Director Nominee Recommendation." The letter must identify the author as a shareholder and provide a brief summary of the candidate's qualifications. At a minimum, candidates recommended for election to the Board of Directors must meet the independence standards of the New York Stock Exchange as well as any criteria used by the Nominating Committee.

During 2008, each director attended at least 80% of the meetings of the Board and the Board committees of which he was a member. We do not have a policy regarding directors' attendance at our annual meetings. A majority of our directors attended our 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Ms. Wilson, who was elected as a director in February 2009, has not received any options for serving on the Board of Directors. She continues to hold options to purchase 2,500 shares of Class A Stock at an exercise price of $16 per share which were granted in February 2000 and options to purchase 7,500 shares of Class A Stock at an exercise price of $31.62 per share which were granted in February 2001. These options were granted to her in her capacity as a professional staff member.

All of the stock options held by our directors were granted at 100% of fair market value on the date of grant and have a ten-year term. The options granted to our directors become exercisable with respect to 75% of the shares after three years from the date of grant and with respect to the remaining 25% of the shares after four years from the date of grant. No existing option holders were entitled to receive any adjustment to their rights under their option grants for the March 2009 distribution of Teton Advisors, Inc. shares made to the Company's shareholders.

One of our directors, Mr. John Gabelli, was also granted restricted stock awards during 2007 in connection with his role as a professional staff member. Subject to Mr. John Gabelli's continued employment, these amounts become vested with respect to 30% of the shares after three years from the date of grant and with respect to the remaining 0% of the shares after five years from the date of the grant. No RSA holders, including this director, were entitled to receive distribution of or value for the Teton Advisors, Inc. shares that the Company made to its shareholders in March 2009.

The following table sets forth fees, awards, and other compensation paid to or earned by our non-executive directors in 2008.

Code of Business Conduct

We have adopted a Code of Business Conduct (the “Code of Conduct”) that applies to all of our officers, directors and staff members with additional requirements for our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions. The Code of Conduct is posted on our web site at www.gabelli.com (under Corporate Information, Corporate Governance). Any shareholder may also obtain a copy of the Code of Conduct upon request. Our Code of Conduct was revised on November 7, 2008. Shareholders may address a written request for a printed copy of the Code of Conduct to our Secretary at GAMCO Investors, Inc., One Corporate Center, Rye, New York 10580-1422. We intend to satisfy the disclosure requirement regarding any amendment to, or a waiver of, a provision of the Code of Conduct by posting such information on our web site.

Transactions with Related Persons

Our Board has adopted written procedures governing the review, approval or ratification of any transactions with related persons required to be reported in this proxy statement. The procedures require that all related party transactions, other than certain pre-approved categories of transactions, be reviewed and approved by our Governance Committee or the Board of Directors. Under the procedures, directors may not participate in any discussion or approval of related party transactions in which they or a member of their immediate family is a related person, except that they shall provide information concerning the transaction. Only transactions that are found to be in the best interests of the Company will be approved.

Currently, we have a number of policies and procedures addressing conflicts of interest. Our Code of Conduct addresses the responsibilities of our officers, directors and staff to disclose conflicts of interest to our Legal/Compliance Department, which determines whether the matter constitutes a related party transaction that should be reviewed by our Governance Committee or Board of Directors. Generally, matters involving employer-employee relationships including compensation and benefits, ongoing arrangements that existed prior to our initial public offering and financial service relationships including investments in our funds are not presented for review, approval or ratification by our Governance Committee or Board of Directors.

Furthermore, our Certificate of Incorporation provides that no contract, agreement, arrangement or transaction, or any amendment, modification or termination thereof, or any waiver of any right thereunder, (each, a “Transaction”) between GAMCO and:

- (i) Mr. Mario Gabelli, any member of his immediate family who is at the time an officer or director of GAMCO and any entity in which one or more of the foregoing beneficially own a controlling interest of the outstanding voting securities or comparable interests (a “Gabelli”),
- (ii) any customer or supplier,
- (iii) any entity in which a director of GAMCO has a financial interest (a “Related Entity”), or
- (iv) one or more of the directors or officers of GAMCO or any Related Entity; will be voidable solely because any of the persons or entities listed in (i) through (iv) above are parties thereto, if the standard specified below is satisfied.

Further, no Transaction will be voidable solely because any such directors or officers are present at or participate in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof that authorizes the Transaction or because their votes are counted for such purpose, if the standard specified is satisfied. That standard will be satisfied, and such Gabelli, the Related Entity, and the directors and officers of GAMCO, or the Related Entity (as applicable) will be deemed to have acted reasonably and in good faith (to the extent such standard is applicable to such person's conduct) and fully to have satisfied any duties of loyalty and fiduciary duties they may have to GAMCO and its shareholders with respect to such Transaction if any of the following four requirements are met:

(i) the material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the Transaction are disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or the committee thereof that authorizes the Transaction, and the Board of Directors or such committee in good faith approves the Transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors on the Board of Directors or such committee, even if the disinterested directors are less than a quorum;

(ii) the material facts as to the relationship or interest and as to the Transaction are disclosed or known to the holders of Voting Stock entitled to vote thereon, and the Transaction is specifically approved by vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the then outstanding Voting Stock not owned by such Gabelli or such Related Entity, voting together as a single class;

(iii) the Transaction is effected pursuant to guidelines that are in good faith approved by a majority of the disinterested directors on the Board of Directors or the applicable committee thereof or by vote of the holders of a majority of the then outstanding voting Stock not owned by such Gabelli or such Related Entity, voting together as a single class; or

(iv) the Transaction is fair to GAMCO as of the time it is approved by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof or the shareholders of GAMCO.

The Certificate of Incorporation also provides that any such Transaction authorized, approved, or effected, and each of such guidelines so authorized or approved, as described in (i), (ii) or (iii) above, will be deemed to be entirely fair to GAMCO and its shareholders, except that, if such authorization or approval is not obtained, or such Transaction is not so effected, no presumption will arise that such Transaction or guideline is not fair to GAMCO and its shareholders. In addition, the Certificate of Incorporation provides that a Gabelli will not be liable to GAMCO or its shareholders for breach of any fiduciary duty that a Gabelli may have as a shareholder of GAMCO by reason of the fact that a Gabelli takes any action in connection with any transaction between such Gabelli and GAMCO. For purposes of these provisions, interests in an entity that are not equity or ownership interests or that constitute less than 10% of the equity or ownership interests of such entity will not be considered to confer a financial interest on any person who beneficially owns such interests.

COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The investment management and securities industries are highly competitive, and experienced professionals have significant career mobility. We believe that the ability to attract, retain and provide appropriate incentives for the highest quality professional personnel is important for maintaining our competitive position in the investment management and securities industries, as well as for providing for the long-term success of GAMCO.

Most of GAMCO's compensation expense is incentive-based variable compensation that will increase or decrease based on the revenues from our assets under management. Since 1977, we have paid out up to 40% of the revenues or net operating contribution to the marketing staff and portfolio managers who introduce, service or generate our separate account and mutual fund business, with payments involving the separate accounts being typically based on revenues, and payments involving the mutual funds being typically based on net operating contribution. We believe that the variable compensation formulas in place for our marketing staff and portfolio managers provide significant incentives for the growth of our business.

Our administrative, operations, legal and finance personnel generally receive the majority of their compensation in the form of base salaries and annual bonuses. We will often defer a portion of the annual bonuses for one to two years as a retention device or for other reasons. We believe that GAMCO must pay competitive levels of cash compensation. We also believe that appropriate equity incentive programs may motivate and retain our professional personnel but that these programs must always be consistent with stockholder interests.

Compensation of Named Executives

The compensation for our named executives (other than for Mr. Gabelli, whose compensation is described separately below, and Mr. Farber, whose compensation is pursuant to his employment agreement and is described earlier under Employment Agreements) is composed of base salary, annual bonus compensation, equity compensation, incentive-based variable compensation and employee benefits.

• Base Salary

Mr. Gabelli recommends to the Compensation Committee the amounts of the base salaries for our named executives, which amounts are subject to the Committee's review and approval. The maximum base salary for our named executives is $300,000, as it has been since prior to our initial public offering in 1999. The base salaries for Messrs. Jamieson, Alpert and Van der Eb have been set at $300,000 for 2008, as they were in 2007. The base salaries for Mr. Caterina and Ms. LaPointe were $250,000 and $200,000, respectively, for 2008. The amounts of base salary for our named executives are recommended by Mr. Gabelli to the Compensation Committee, which amounts are subject to the Committee's review and approval, and are not at the discretion of the executive officers. Messrs. Gabelli and Farber receive no base salary.

• Annual Bonus

Mr. Gabelli recommends to the Compensation Committee the amounts of the annual bonuses for our named executives, which amounts are subject to the Committee's review and approval. The factors considered by Mr. Gabelli in making annual bonus recommendations are typically subjective, such as perceptions of experience, performance and responsibilities. His recommendations may be but are not specifically tied to the performance of client assets, objectives set for each executive, the firm as a whole or the market value of our stock.

A portion of the annual bonuses for our named executives is often deferred for approximately 15 to 18 months. The terms of the deferrals are recommended by Mr. Gabelli to the Compensation Committee, which terms are subject to the Committee's review and approval, and are not at the discretion of the named executives. The deferrals typically earn a return equal to greater of the return on our U.S. Treasury money market fund or the return of one of our investment partnerships after payment of the management fee but before payment of any incentive fee. In order to receive the deferred bonus payment, the named executive must be employed by the Company at the time of payment.

- Equity Compensation

Our executive compensation program may also include stock option or restricted stock awards, which may provide additional incentives to increase shareholder value and retain qualified individuals. No stock option awards have been granted to any of the named executives since 2003. In December 2007, a restricted stock award plan was implemented, and grants were made to each of the executive officers employed by the Company at that time, except Mr. Gabelli, who did not receive any such awards. Individual restricted stock awards granted to these executive officers during 2007 were recommended by Mr. Gabelli to the Compensation Committee and were subject to the Committee's review and approval. Individual stock option award levels in past years and individual restricted stock award levels in 2007 were based upon a subjective evaluation of each individual's overall past and expected future contribution. There was no formula used to determine either option awards or restricted stock awards for any individual. No grants were made to the named executives, other than Mr. Farber, during 2008. Mr. Farber's restricted stock award grant in July 2008 was pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, which was subject to the Compensation Committee's review and approval.

- Variable Compensation

To the extent that they have the proper regulatory registrations, all of our staff, including the named executives, is eligible to receive incentive-based variable compensation for attracting or providing client service to separate accounts, shareholders of the Gabelli or GAMCO Funds or investors in our other products. Mr. Jamieson, who provides client service to a significant number of separate accounts, received the majority of his total 2008 compensation from variable compensation payments, as described above in note (g) to the Summary Compensation Table.

In the course of fulfilling Mr. Gabelli's duties, the Company at times brings on certain individuals to aid him. When this occurs, the Company offsets those costs by a reduction in compensation payable to Mr. Gabelli. In 2008, this amounted to $3,572,801. Of this amount, $410,301 was allocated to Mr. Jamieson for his service as President and Chief Operating Officer, and $1,250,000 was allocated to Mr. Farber for his service as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer from July 2008 to December 2008.

Because these compensation arrangements with respect to covered employees involve variable incentive-based fees, the $1 million deductibility limit of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code is generally not expected to apply to the payments.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. Gabelli received no base salary, no bonus, no stock options and no restricted stock awards in 2008, as has been the case for each year since our initial public offering in 1999. All of the compensation paid to Mr. Gabelli in 2008 was incentive-based variable compensation that was paid in accordance with Mr. Gabelli's 2008 Employment Agreement as described under the heading Employment Agreements.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee reviewed and discussed with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis appearing above. Based on this review and discussion, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section be included in this proxy statement, which section is also incorporated by reference in GAMCO's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

For Mr. Farber, this amount represents 25,000 shares of restricted stock granted in July 2008, with an effective grant date, under FAS 123(R) and FSP 123(R)-2, of July 30, 2008 and with a grant date fair value of $45.14 per share, equal to the closing price of Class A Stock on that day. This column reflects the dollar amount of compensation expense recognized for financial statement reporting purposes for fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 in accordance with FAS 123(R), calculated using the grant date fair values indicated above and the vesting periods of three years from date of grant as to 30% of each award and five years from date of grant as to the remaining 70% of each award.

- (a) Mr. Gabelli has never received either options or restricted stock awards from the Company. He recommends the grant of stock awards for corporate team members to the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis herein.
- (b) The actual and effective grant date, under FAS 123(R) and FSP 123(R)-2, was July 30, 2008, which is the date that the final actions were taken by the Compensation Committee to approve and grant the award of 25,000 restricted shares to Mr. Farber under the Stock Award and Incentive Plan. The estimated future payouts related to Mr. Farber reflects the compensation expense which will be recognized over the full vesting period should he fulfill the vesting requirements and is calculated using the grant date fair value of $45.14 per share, equal to the closing price of Class A Stock on that day. The award vests and the restrictions on Mr. Farber’s ability to sell the shares lapse on July 30, 2011 as to 30% and on July 30, 2013 as to the remaining 70% of the award.

Employment Agreements. Messrs. Gabelli and Farber are the only named executives who have employment agreements with the Company.

Mario J. Gabelli. On February 6, 2008, Mr. Gabelli entered into an amended and restated employment agreement (the “2008 Employment Agreement”) with the Company, which was approved by the Company’s shareholders on November 30, 2007 and which limits his activities outside of the Company. The 2008 Employment Agreement modified Mr. Gabelli’s previous employment agreement primarily by (i) eliminating outdated provisions, clarifying certain language and reflecting our name change; (ii) revising the term of the Employment Agreement from an indefinite term to automatically renewed one-year periods in perpetuity following the initial three-year term unless either party gives 90 days written notice prior to the expiration of the annual term following the initial three-year term; (iii) allowing for services to be performed for former subsidiaries that are spun off to shareholders or otherwise cease to be subsidiaries in similar transactions; (iv) allowing new investors in the permitted outside accounts if all of the performance fees, less expenses, generated by assets attributable to such investors are paid to us; (v) allowing for the management fee to be paid directly to Mr. Gabelli or to an entity designated by him; and (vi) adding certain language to ensure that the 2008 Employment Agreement complies with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

Mr. Gabelli (or, at his option, his designee) receives an incentive-based management fee in the amount of 10% of our aggregate annual pre-tax profits, if any, as computed for financial reporting purposes in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (before consideration of this fee) so long as he is an executive of the Company and devotes the substantial majority of his working time to our business. This incentive-based management fee is subject to the Compensation Committee’s review at least annually for compliance with its terms. The 2008 Employment Agreement may not be amended without the approval of the Compensation Committee.

In accordance with the 2008 Employment Agreement, Mr. Gabelli chose to allocate $1,660,301 and $1,451,827 of his management fee to certain other professional staff members of the Company in 2008 and 2007, respectively. Mr. Gabelli received the following incentive-based management fees during the past five years:

	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008
Management Fee ($ in millions)	11.0	11.4	13.2	13.0	2.4

Consistent with the Company’s practice since its inception in 1977, Mr. Gabelli will also continue receiving a percentage of revenues or net operating contribution, which are substantially derived from assets under management, as compensation relating to or generated by the following activities: (i) managing or overseeing the management of various investment companies and partnerships, (ii) attracting mutual fund shareholders, (iii) attracting and managing separate accounts, and (iv) otherwise generating revenues for the Company. Such payments are made in a manner and at rates as agreed to from time to time by GAMCO, which rates have been and generally will be the same as those received by other professionals at GAMCO performing similar services. With respect to our institutional and high net worth asset management and mutual fund advisory business, we pay out up to 40% of the revenues or net operating contribution to the portfolio managers and marketing staff who introduce, service or generate such business, with (i) payments involving the separate accounts being typically based on revenues and (ii) payments involving the mutual funds being typically based on net operating contribution.

Mr. Gabelli has agreed that while he is employed by us he will not provide investment management services outside of GAMCO, except for certain permitted accounts.

Jeffrey M. Farber. On July 3, 2008, Mr. Farber entered into an employment agreement (the “Farber Agreement”) with the Company. The term of the Farber Agreement expires on December 31, 2009, unless the parties agree in writing to extend the term thereafter. Under the Farber Agreement, Mr. Farber’s oversight responsibilities include finance, business development, compliance, legal, information technology, human resources and facilities. The Farber Agreement provides that Mr. Farber receives 20% of the incentive-based management fee earned annually by Mr. Gabelli (or any entity designated by Mr. Gabelli) subject to a guaranteed minimum cash amount of $1,250,000 for 2008, payable in six equal monthly installments of $208,333 and a guaranteed minimum cash amount of $3,000,000 in 2009 payable in twelve equal monthly installments of $250,000. The Farber Agreement also provides that Mr. Farber, under this allocation, is entitled to receive additional compensation above the $1,250,000 and $3,000,000 minimum amounts for 2008 and 2009, respectively, to the extent that the 20% of Mr. Gabelli’s incentive based management fees that were earned in 2008 and 2009 exceeds the respective minimum cash guaranteed amounts for 2008 and 2009, provided that Mr. Farber must be employed for the entire 2009 calendar year to receive the amount for 2009. In addition, Mr. Farber is also eligible for additional compensation on new accounts or investors he brings in to the Company or on other revenue-generating activities as may apply under the Company’s policies from time to time, on a basis no less favorable than as generally applicable to other senior executives. Furthermore, pursuant to the Farber Agreement, on July 30, 2008, Mr. Farber was granted an award of 25,000 shares of restricted stock under the Company’s Stock Award and Incentive Plan.

Pursuant to the Farber Agreement, Mr. Farber is also eligible to receive discretionary annual long-term restricted stock awards in December of each year of his employment. Mr. Farber is also entitled to receive usual and customary benefits on terms no less favorable than as made available to other senior executives.

The Farber Agreement further provides that if his employment is terminated as a result of his death, resignation for good reason, or termination by the Company other than for cause or as a result of his disability, he or his estate shall be entitled to receive his minimum 2009 cash compensation for the balance of the period ending December 31, 2009. The Farber Agreement also contains certain change-of-control provisions which state that in the event of a sale by GGCP, Inc. of over one-half of its ownership of the Company’s Class B Common Stock to a third party, Mr. Farber will be paid an amount representing the capitalization of the incentive-based management fee, calculated based upon Mr. Farber’s applicable percentage share of the incentive based management fee at the time the proceeds are received. Finally, the Farber Agreement further provides that if the Company were to terminate his employment for cause, he would only be entitled to receive his 2009 cash compensation through the date of such termination.

Upon a change-of-control of the Company, all restricted stock awards (the “RSAs”) held by Mr. Farber (if still employed by the Company at such time) automatically vest, and the accumulated but unpaid dividends associated with these RSAs would become immediately payable. Additionally, upon a termination of Mr. Farber’s employment due to his death or permanent disability, all of his RSAs would automatically vest and the accumulated but unpaid dividends associated with these RSAs would become immediately payable.

- (a) This amount is included in the bonus column of the Summary Compensation Table.
- (b) Of this amount, none is included in the change in pension value and nonqualified deferred compensation earnings column of the Summary Compensation Table because in no instance were such earnings above market or preferential (defined as being in excess of 120% of the applicable federal long-term rate).
- (c) Of this amount, $150,000 was included in the bonus column, 2007 amount, of the Summary Compensation Table.
- (d) Of this amount, $75,000 was included in the bonus column, 2007 amount, of the Summary Compensation Table and $50,000 was included in the bonus column, 2008 amount, of the Summary Compensation Table.

As discussed in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis herein, the Company deferred a portion of the annual bonuses paid to Messrs. Jamieson and Alpert in 2007 and to Mr. Caterina and Ms. LaPointe in both 2007 and 2008. The mandatory deferrals for 2008, shown as contributions in the table above, vest on May 31, 2010 and will be paid in June 2010, subject to the individual's continued employment at the time of payment to receive this compensation. The mandatory deferrals for 2007, included as a portion of the aggregate balances at December 31, 2008 in the table above, vested on March 31, 2009 and were paid on April 6, 2009, based on the individual's continued employment on the date of payment. These deferrals earn a return equal to the greater of (i) the rate of return on the Company's U.S. Treasury money market fund or (ii) the rate of return on one of the Company's investment partnerships after payment of the management fee but before the payment of the performance fee. For the 2007 deferrals, this was (i).

Potential Payments upon Termination of Employment or Change-of-Control. Among the named executives, only Mr. Farber is entitled to any severance payments upon termination of employment with the Company. Mr. Farber's employment agreement, described above under the heading Employment Agreements, provides that if his employment is terminated as a result of his death, resignation for good reason, or termination by the Company other than for cause or as a result of his disability, he or his estate shall be entitled to receive his minimum 2009 cash compensation for the balance of the period ending December 31, 2009. Therefore, if Mr. Farber's employment had terminated for one of the reasons above on December 31, 2008, he would have been entitled to receive a cash payment of $3,000,000. Mr. Farber's employment agreement contains certain change-of-control provisions which state that in the event of a sale by GGCP, Inc. of over one-half of its ownership of the Company's Class B Common Stock to a third party, Mr. Farber will be paid an amount representing the capitalization of the incentive-based management fee, calculated based upon Mr. Farber's applicable percentage share of the incentive based management fee at the time the proceeds are received. Assuming the Company had been sold on December 31, 2008 at a valuation multiple reflected in the December 31, 2008 market capitalization, the value of Mr. Farber's contractual entitlement under this provision would have been approximately $15,000,000. Finally, Mr. Farber's agreement further provides that if the Company were to terminate his employment for cause, he would only be entitled to receive his 2009 cash compensation through the date of such termination. Upon a termination of his employment for cause on December 31, 2008, the Company would have had no further obligation to him.

Upon a change-of-control of the Company, all restricted stock awards (the "RSAs") held by the named executives (if still employed by the Company at such time) automatically vest, and the accumulated but unpaid dividends associated with these RSAs would become immediately payable. Assuming that a change-of-control of the Company had occurred on December 31, 2008, and assuming a price per share of $27.32, which was the closing price of Class A Stock on December 31, 2008, the value of Mr. Jamieson's RSAs on such date would have been $437,120, the value of Mr. Farber's RSAs held on such date would have been $683,000, and the value of the RSAs held on such date by each of Messrs. Caterina, Alpert, Van der Eb and Ms. LaPointe would have been $136,600. In addition, the accumulated but unpaid dividends on these shares through December 31, 2008, which would be payable upon a change-of-control on that date, amounted to $32,800 for Mr. Jamieson, $49,000 for Mr. Farber, and $10,250 each for Messrs. Caterina, Alpert, and Van der Eb and Ms. LaPointe. Additionally, upon a termination of Mr. Farber's employment due to his death or permanent disability, all of his RSAs would automatically vest and the accumulated but unpaid dividends associated with these RSAs would become immediately payable. Upon a termination of Mr. Farber's employment due to his death or disability on December 31, 2008, the value of the RSAs and of the accumulated but unpaid dividends on the RSAs would have been the same as in the assumed change-of-control circumstance ($683,000 and $49,000, respectively).

No RSA holders, including the named executives, were entitled to receive the distribution of or value for Teton Advisors, Inc. shares that the Company made to its shareholders in March 2009.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Based solely on a review of filings made under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we believe that our directors and executive officers and our shareholders who own 10% or more of our Class A Stock or Class B Stock have complied with the requirements of Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to report ownership, and transactions which change ownership, on time with the exception as follows: in connection with a distribution of Class B Shares made by GGCP to all of its shareholders on a pro-rata basis, there were late Form 4 filings reporting the distribution of B Shares to Bruce Alpert, Mario Gabelli, John Gabelli and Douglas Jamieson; and the grant of 6,000 options to Mr. Avansino was reported on a late Form 4.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

GGCP, Inc. (“GGCP”) owns a majority of our Class B Stock, representing approximately 95% of the combined voting power and 72% of the outstanding shares of our common stock at December 31, 2008. Mario J. Gabelli serves as the Chief Executive Officer, a director and is the controlling shareholder of GGCP. In addition three of our directors or executive officers are shareholders of GGCP, namely Bruce N. Alpert, Douglas R. Jamieson, and Elisa M. Wilson.

On May 31, 2006, we entered into an Exchange and Standstill Agreement with Frederick J. Mancheski, a significant shareholder, pursuant to which, among other things, he agreed to exchange his 2,071,635 shares of Class B Stock for an equal number of shares of Class A Stock. Certain shareholders of GGCP, including two of our executive officers and a director, who received shares of Class B Stock in a distribution from GGCP, also agreed to exchange their shares of Class B Stock for an equal number of shares of Class A Stock. Pursuant to a Registration Rights Agreement that we entered into with Mr. Mancheski, we filed a shelf registration statement that was declared effective by the SEC on September 1, 2006 for the sale by Mr. Mancheski and others, including certain of our officers, employees and a director, of up to 2,486,763 shares of Class A Stock.

For 2008, the Company incurred charges of $299,713 for incremental costs (but not the fixed costs) relating to our use of an airplane in which GGCP owns a fractional interest.

We lease an approximately 60,000 square foot building located at 401 Theodore Fremd Avenue, Rye, New York as our headquarters (the “Building”) from M4E, LLC, (“M4E”) an entity that is owned by the children of Mario J. Gabelli (“Mario Gabelli” or “Chairman”), including Ms. Wilson. Under the lease for the Building, which expires on April 30, 2023, we are responsible for all operating expenses, costs of electricity and other utilities and taxes. For 2008, the rent was $889,570, or $14.83 per square foot, for the period January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008. In August of 2008, the lease was extended until 2023, and the rent was increased to $18 per sq. foot for 2009. As a member of M4E, Ms. Wilson is entitled to receive her pro-rata share of compensation received by M4E under the lease.

We sub-lease approximately 3,300 square feet in the Building to LICT Corporation (“LICT”), a company for which Mario Gabelli serves as Chairman and is deemed to be the controlling shareholder in his role as general partner to MJG IV Limited Partnership (“MJG IV”), the majority shareholder of LICT, which also pays rent to us at the rate of $28 per square foot plus $3 per square foot for electricity, subject to adjustment for increases in taxes and other operating expenses. The total amount paid in 2008 for rent and other expenses under this lease was $117,169. Concurrent with the extension of the lease on the Building, GAMCO and LICT agreed to extend the term of the sub-lease until December 31, 2023 on the same terms and conditions. Mario Gabelli is the general partner of MJG IV, and his children, including Ms. Wilson, are the limited partners of MJG IV. As of July 1, 2008, we also sub-lease approximately 1,600 square feet in the Building to Teton Advisors, Inc. (“Teton”), formerly a 42%-owned subsidiary of GAMCO whose shares were distributed to GAMCO shareholders on March 20, 2009. Teton pays rent to us at the rate of $28 per square foot plus $3 per square foot for electricity, subject to adjustment for increases in taxes and other operating expenses. The total amounts paid in 2008 to us for rent and other expenses under this lease were $33,456.

In 2008, GAMCO entered into a sublease of its office space in Reno, Nevada to CIBL, Inc. (“CIBL”). Mario Gabelli is a director of CIBL and deemed to be the controlling shareholder of CIBL through his role as general partner of MJG IV, the majority shareholder of CIBL. Under the terms of the Reno sublease, GAMCO granted CIBL the right to use such part of GAMCO’s Reno office as GAMCO and CIBL shall from time to time agree. The sublease grants CIBL the right to use the Reno office until July 31, 2009 with an automatic renewal for one additional calendar year. For the two months of 2008, the rent for the Reno sublease was $1,000.

In addition to the sub-lease of space in the Building, we entered into a number of agreements in connection with the Company’s distribution of the shares of Class A and B Common Stock in Teton. These agreements are as follows: a Separation and Distribution Agreement, a Transitional Administrative and Management Services Agreement (“Administrative Agreement”) and Service Mark and Name License Agreement (the “License Agreement”). Pursuant to the Administrative Agreement, we provide certain services to Teton including senior executive functions, strategic planning and general corporate management services; mutual fund administration services; treasury services, including insurance and risk management services and administration of benefits; operational and general administrative assistance including office space, office equipment, administrative personnel, payroll, and procurement services as needed; accounting and related financial services, including the services of Jeffrey M. Farber to act as Teton’s Chief Financial Officer; legal, regulatory and compliance advice, including the retention of a Chief Compliance Officer; and human resources functions, including sourcing of permanent and temporary employees as needed, recordkeeping, performance reviews and terminations. The License Agreement provides Teton and the funds that it manages the use of certain names and service marks. Pursuant to the Administrative Agreement and the License Agreement, GAMCO will be compensated by Teton $45,000 per quarter, or $180,000 per year, plus 20 basis points of the net assets managed in the Teton funds for providing mutual fund administration services to these funds. In 2008, Teton paid $60,000 to GAMCO pursuant to this agreement. The mutual fund administration services will be provided to Teton for a monthly payment in an amount equal to 20 basis points of the average net assets managed by the funds that Teton advises in such month. We sub-lease space in the Building to Teton as discussed above.

Pursuant to such agreements, Gabelli Securities and MJG Associates paid GAMCO Asset Management $50,000 and $10,000, respectively, (excluding reimbursement of expenses) for 2008. In April 1999, Gabelli Securities formed Gabelli Global Partners, L.P., an investment limited partnership for which Gabelli Securities and Gemini are the general partners. INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

On March 27, 2009, after a competitive proposal process, the Audit Committee GAMCO Investors, Inc. (“GAMCO”) approved the engagement of Deloitte & Touche LLP (“D&T”) as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December, 31, 2009 and dismissed Ernst & Young, LLP (“EY”) from that role.

The report of EY regarding the Company’s financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to the uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively, and in the subsequent interim period through March 27, 2009, there were (i) no disagreements between the Company and EY on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of EY, would have caused EY to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in their reports on the financial statements for such years, and (ii) no “reportable events” as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

GAMCO provided EY with a copy of the disclosures it made in its Current Report on Form 8-K (the “Report”) prior to the time the Report was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) on March 31, 2009. GAMCO requested that EY furnish a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether or not it agreed with the statements made therein. A copy of EY’s letter dated March 31, 2009 was attached as Exhibit 99.1 to the Report.

D&T was engaged on March 27, 2009. In deciding to engage D&T, the Audit Committee reviewed auditor independence and existing commercial relationships with D&T, and concluded that D&T has no commercial relationship with the Company that would impair its independence. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively, and in the subsequent interim period through March 27, 2009, neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf has consulted with D&T on any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2) of Regulation S-K.

A representative of D&T will be present at the meeting. The representative will have the opportunity to make a statement and respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

EY had been the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm since its inception in 1998. A representative of this firm will be present at the meeting. The representative will have the opportunity to make a statement and respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

GUIDELINES FOR DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

For a director to be deemed "independent," the Board shall affirmatively determine that the director has no material relationship with GAMCO Investors, Inc. (together with its consolidated subsidiaries, "GAMCO") or its affiliates or any member of the senior management of GAMCO or his or her affiliates. This determination shall be disclosed in the proxy statement for each annual meeting of GAMCO's shareholders. In making this determination, the Board shall apply the following standards:

- A director who is an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of GAMCO will not be deemed independent until three years after the end of such employment relationship. Employment as an interim Chairman or Chief Executive Officer will not disqualify a director from being considered independent following that employment.
- A director who received, or whose immediate family member received in any twelve month period over the last three years more than $120,000 in direct compensation from GAMCO will not be deemed independent. In calculating such compensation, the following will be excluded:
 - director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service);
 - compensation received by a director for former service as an interim Chairman or Chief Executive Officer;
 - compensation received by an immediate family member for service as a non-executive officer employee of GAMCO; and
 - dividend or interest income and bona fide and documented reimbursed business expenses.
- A director will not be considered independent if:
 - the director is a current partner or employee of a firm that is GAMCO's internal or external auditor;
 - the director has an immediate family member who is a current partner of GAMCO's internal or external auditor;
 - the director has an immediate family member who is a current employee of GAMCO's internal or external auditor and personally works on GAMCO's audit; or
 - the director or an immediate family member was within in the last three years a partner or employee of GAMCO's internal or external auditor and personally worked on GAMCO's audit within that time.
- A director who is, or whose immediate family member is, employed as an executive officer of another company where any of GAMCO's current executive officers serve on that company's compensation committee will not be deemed independent until three years after the end of such service or the employment relationship.
- A director who is, a general partner or employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer or general partner, of an entity that makes payments to, or receives payments from, GAMCO for property or services in an amount which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 million or 2% of such other entity's consolidated gross revenues, will not be deemed independent.
- Further to the provision above that applies to goods and services generally, a director who is, or whose immediate family member is, an executive officer, general partner or significant equity holder (i.e., in excess of 10%) of an entity that is a paid provider of professional services to GAMCO, any of its affiliates, any executive officer or any affiliate of an executive officer, if the payments for such services exceed $120,000 (but do not exceed the greater of $1 million or 2% of such other entity's consolidated gross revenues) within the preceding twelve-month period may not be deemed independent.

- A director who is, or whose immediate family member is, affiliated with or employed by a tax-exempt entity that receives significant contributions (i.e., more than 2% of the annual contributions received by the entity or more than $1 million in a single fiscal year, whichever amount is greater) from GAMCO, any of its affiliates, any executive officer or any affiliate of an executive officer within the preceding twelve-month period may not be deemed independent, unless the contribution was approved by the Board and disclosed in GAMCO's proxy statement.

For purposes of these Guidelines, the terms:

- "affiliate" means any consolidated subsidiary of GAMCO and any other company or entity that controls, is controlled by or is under common control with GAMCO, as evidenced by the power to elect a majority of the board of directors or comparable governing body of such entity; and
- "immediate family" means spouse, parents, children, siblings, mothers- and fathers-in-law, sons- and daughters-in-law, brothers- and sisters-in-law and anyone (other than domestic employees) sharing a person's home, but excluding any person who is no longer an immediate family member as a result of legal separation or divorce, or death or incapacitation.

The Board shall undertake an annual review of the independence of all non-employee directors. In advance of the meeting at which this review occurs, each non-employee director shall be asked to provide the Board with full information regarding the director's business and other relationships with GAMCO and its affiliates and with senior management and their affiliates to enable the Board to evaluate the director's independence.

Directors have an affirmative obligation to inform the Board of any material changes in their circumstances or relationships that may impact their designation by the Board as "independent." This obligation includes all business relationships between, on the one hand, directors or members of their immediate family, and, on the other hand, GAMCO and its affiliates or members of senior management and their affiliates, whether or not such business relationships are subject to the approval requirement set forth in the following provision.
