How did the Fund perform?

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, The Gabelli Global Content & Connectivity Fund outperformed its broad-based benchmark, MSCI AC World Index but underperformed its comparative benchmark, MSCI AC World Communication Services Index. The difference in performance was largely driven by the Fund's lower weights in technology- and online-related mega-cap stocks, to avoid excessive concentration. Top contributors to our Fund included firms benefiting from strength and scale in digital advertising, continued optimism around artificial intelligence platforms and rising demand for AI chips, solid wireless operating performance, or announced merger and acquisition transactions.

How has the Fund performed over the past 10 years?

The performance chart of the fund class presented reflects a hypothetical $10,000 investment, assuming the maximum sales charge, compared to a broad-based securities market index and more narrowly based indices reflecting market sectors in which the Fund invests over a 10-year period. The chart uses total return NAV performance and assumes reinvestment of dividends and capital gains distribution. Fund expenses were deducted.
