Expense Example

This example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in the Small Cap Growth Fund with the cost of investing in other mutual funds.

The example assumes that you invest $10,000 in the Small Cap Growth Fund for the time periods shown and then redeem all of your shares at the end of those periods. The example also assumes that your investment has a 5% return each year and that the Small Cap Growth Fund's operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based on these assumptions your costs would be:

	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
Class AAA Shares . . . . .	$139	$434	$ 750	$1,646

Class C Shares . . . . .	$315	$664	$1,139	$2,452
Class I Shares . . . . .	$114	$356	$ 617	$1,363

You would pay the following expenses if you did not redeem your shares of the Small Cap Growth Fund:

	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
Class AAA Shares . . . . .	$139	$434	$ 750	$1,646
Class A Shares . . . . .	$706	$984	$1,282	$2,127
Class C Shares . . . . .	$215	$664	$1,139	$2,452
Class I Shares . . . . .	$114	$356	$ 617	$1,363

Portfolio Turnover

The Small Cap Growth Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or "turns over" its portfolio). A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when the Small Cap Growth Fund's shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in the annual fund operating expenses or in the example, affect the Small Cap Growth Fund's performance. During the most recent fiscal year, the Small Cap Growth Fund's portfolio turnover rate was 2% of the average value of its portfolio.

Principal Investment Strategies

Under normal market conditions, the Small Cap Growth Fund invests at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities of U.S. and non-U.S. companies that are considered to be small companies at the time the Small Cap Growth Fund makes its investment. The Small Cap Growth Fund invests primarily in the common stocks of companies which Gabelli Funds, LLC, the Small Cap Growth Fund's adviser (the "Adviser"), believes are likely to have rapid growth in revenues and above average rates of earnings growth. The Adviser currently characterizes small capitalization companies for the Small Cap Growth Fund as those with total common stock market values of $3 billion or less at the time of investment.

In selecting investments for the Small Cap Growth Fund, the Adviser seeks issuers with a dominant market share or niche franchise in growing and/or consolidating industries. The Adviser considers for purchase the stocks of small capitalization (capitalization is the price per share multiplied by the number of shares outstanding) companies with experienced management, strong balance sheets, and rising free cash flow and earnings. The Adviser's goal is to invest long term in the stocks of companies trading at reasonable market valuations relative to perceived economic worth.

Frequently, smaller companies exhibit one or more of the following traits:

- New products or technologies
- New distribution methods
- Rapid changes in industry conditions due to regulatory or other developments
- Changes in management or similar characteristics that may result not only in expected growth in revenues but in an accelerated or above average rate of earnings growth, which would usually be reflected in capital appreciation.

In addition, because smaller companies are less actively followed by stock analysts and less information is available on which to base stock price evaluations, the market may overlook favorable trends in particular smaller growth companies and then adjust its valuation more quickly once investor interest is gained.

Principal Risks

You may want to invest in the Small Cap Growth Fund if:

- you are a long term investor
- you seek capital appreciation
- you believe that the market will favor small capitalization stocks over the long term

The Small Cap Growth Fund's share price will fluctuate with changes in the market value of the Small Cap Growth Fund's portfolio securities. An investment in the Small Cap Growth Fund is not a deposit of a bank and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. When you sell Small Cap Growth Fund shares, they may be worth more or less than what you paid for them; you may lose money by investing in the Small Cap Growth Fund.

Investing in the Small Cap Growth Fund involves the following risks:

- Market Disruption, Inflation and Interest Rate Risk. General economic and market conditions, such as interest rates, availability of credit, inflation rates, economic uncertainty, supply chain disruptions, labor shortages, energy and other resource shortages, changes in laws, trade barriers, currency exchange controls and national and international political circumstances (including governmental responses to public health crises or the spread of infectious diseases), may have long-term negative effects on the U.S. and worldwide financial markets and economy, and thus the Fund. Inflation risk is the risk that the value of assets or income from investments will be worth less in the future as inflation decreases the value of money. General interest rate fluctuations may have a substantial negative impact on the Fund's investments, the value of the Fund and the Fund's rate of return. There is a risk that heightened interest rates may cause the economy to enter a recession. Any such recession would negatively impact the Fund and the investments held by the Fund.
- Equity Risk. Equity risk is the risk that the prices of the securities held by the Small Cap Growth Fund will change due to general market and economic conditions, perceptions regarding the industries in which the companies issuing the securities participate, and the issuer company's particular circumstances.
- Foreign Securities Risk. Investments in foreign securities involve risks relating to political, social, and economic developments abroad, as well as risks resulting from the differences between the regulations to which U.S. and foreign issuers and markets are subject. These risks include expropriation, differing accounting and disclosure standards, currency exchange risks, settlement difficulties, market illiquidity, difficulties enforcing legal rights, and greater transaction costs. These risks are more pronounced in the securities of companies located in emerging markets.
- Management Risk. If the portfolio manager is incorrect in his assessment of the growth prospects of the securities the Small Cap Growth Fund holds, then the value of the Small Cap Growth Fund's shares may decline.
- Small Capitalization Company Risk. Investing in securities of small capitalization companies may involve greater risks than investing in larger, more established issuers. Smaller capitalization companies typically have relatively lower revenues, limited product lines and lack of management depth, and may have a smaller share of the market for their products or services, than larger capitalization companies. The stocks of smaller capitalization companies tend to have less trading volume than stocks of larger capitalization companies. Less trading volume may make it more difficult for the portfolio manager to sell securities of smaller capitalization companies at quoted market prices. Finally, there are periods when investing in smaller capitalization stocks fall out of favor with investors and the stocks of smaller capitalization companies underperform.

- Value Investing Risk. The Small Cap Growth Fund invests in “value” stocks. The portfolio manager may be wrong in the assessment of a company’s value and the stocks the Small Cap Growth Fund holds may not reach what the portfolio manager believes are their full values. From time to time “value” investing falls out of favor with investors. During those periods, the Small Cap Growth Fund’s relative performance may suffer.

After-tax returns are calculated using the historical highest individual federal marginal income tax rates and do not reflect the impact of state and local taxes. After-tax returns are shown for only Class AAA shares, and after-tax returns for other classes will vary. In some instances, the “Return After Taxes on Distributions and Sale of Fund Shares” may be greater than the “Return After Taxes on Distributions” because the investor is assumed to be able to use the capital loss from the sale of Fund shares to offset other taxable gains. Actual after-tax returns depend on an investor’s tax situation and may differ from those shown. After-tax returns shown are not relevant to investors who hold their Small Cap Growth Fund shares through tax-deferred arrangements, such as 401(k) plans or Individual Retirement Accounts, including Roth IRAs and SEP IRAs (collectively, “IRAs”).
