

Research Analyst, Rye, NY:

Provide fundamental equity research coverage of Asia-Pacific (APAC) equity markets; Create/manage business valuation models constructed from cash flow projections, based on specific revenue drivers & profitability estimates; Publish research reports on companies of interest, establish/maintain targeted coverage universe & build knowledge within industry through conferences/analyst days/financial reports/site visits/management meetings; Collaborate with the U.S. Research team & discuss companies' performances after earnings, news releases, or relevant articles are released with global portfolio management; Explore actionable investment ideas to be potential investments; Identify new trends in the Asian market & determine the impact on global markets & expand generalist research coverage across APAC regions; Represent the research team during client meetings/visits & communicate GAMCO's investment approach to existing & prospective clients.

Required: Master of Business Administration (MBA) with a focus on Investing/Investment Management. Minimum of 5 years' APAC financial markets investment research experience. In-depth knowledge of global equities, international business cultures, financial operations, and Asian financial markets. Proven expertise in qualitative and quantitative analysis of international companies, including market sizing, competitive positioning, management quality assessment, and financial modeling. Exceptional written/verbal communication skills. Advanced proficiency in Bloomberg/S&P Capital IQ/ Wind-Financial/MS Office Suite. Occasional domestic and international business travel required. Salary: $180,000 - $225,000/year. Gamco Investors, Inc.

GAMCO Investors, Inc., an Equal Opportunity Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.")

Apply: recruiting@gabelli.com